LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on 4th August, 1986:—

BILL NO. 88 OF 1986

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Fifty-third Amendment) Act, 1986.

Short title and commencement.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Insertion
of new article
371 G.

2. After article 371F of the Constitution, the following article shall be inserted, namely:—

“371G. Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution,—

Special provision with respect to the State of Mizoram.

(a) no Act of Parliament in respect of—

(i) religious or social practices of the Mizos,

(ii) Mizo customary law and procedure,

(iii) administration of civil and criminal justice involving decisions according to Mizo customary law,

(1)

(iv) ownership and transfer of land, shall apply to the State of Mizoram unless the Legislative Assembly of Mizoram by a resolution so decides:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to any Central Act in force in the Union territory of Mizoram immediately before the commencement of the Constitution (Fifty-third Amendment) Act, 1986:

(b) the Legislative Assembly of the State of Mizoram shall consist of not less than forty members.”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

On the 30th June, 1986, a Memorandum of Settlement on Mizoram was signed by the Government of India and the Government of Mizoram with the Mizo National Front which envisages among other things the conferment of statehood on the Union Territory of Mizoram subject to the other stipulations contained in the Memorandum. Paragraph 4.2 of the Memorandum provides that to give effect to the decision "all the necessary legislative and administrative measures will be undertaken, including those for the enactment of Bills for the amendment of the Constitution and other laws for the conferment of statehood as aforesaid, to come into effect on a date to be notified by the Central Government".

2. Paragraph 4.3 of the Memorandum provides as follows:—

Acts of Parliament shall not apply to the new State of Mizoram unless so decided by the Mizoram Legislature with regard to—

- (i) religious or social practices of Mizos;
- (ii) Mizo customary law and procedure;
- (iii) administration of civil and criminal justice involving decisions according to Mizo customary law;
- (iv) ownership and transfer of land.

The above provision will not, however, apply in the case of Central Acts which are in force in the Union territory of Mizoram immediately before the date on which the Constitution (Amendment) Act comes into force.

3. The Memorandum also provides that the Legislative Assembly of the proposed new State of Mizoram will consist of not less than forty members.

4. As the matters specified in paragraph 2 and 3 are peculiar to the proposed new State of Mizoram, provisions with respect thereto have to be made in the Constitution itself. This Bill accordingly seeks to amend the Constitution to provide for the aforesaid matters. A separate Bill for the establishment of the new State relatable to article 2 is also being introduced.

This Bill is intended to give effect to this undertaking. It seeks to establish a new State of Mizoram comprising the territories of the existing Union territory of Mizoram and makes the necessary supplemental, incidental and consequential provisions.

2. The Notes on clauses explain in detail the provisions of the Bill.

NEW DELHI;

BUTA SINGH.

The 1st August, 1986.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274
OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. S-12013/2/86-SR, dated the 2nd August, 1986 from Shri Buta Singh, Minister of Home Affairs to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the Bill to provide for establishment of the State of Mizoram and for matters connected therewith, recommends the introduction of the Bill in Lok Sabha under articles 117(1) and 274(1) of the Constitution and the consideration of the Bill in Lok Sabha under article 117(3) of the Constitution.

Notes on clauses

Clauses 3 and 4.—Clause 3 provides for the establishment of the new State of Mizoram while clause 4 makes necessary consequential amendments in the First Schedule to the Constitution.

Clauses 5 and 6.—These clauses deal with the representation of Mizoram in the Council of States. At present there is one seat in the said Council for the Union territory of Mizoram. It is proposed to continue this representation for the new State also. The sitting Member from Mizoram in the Council of States will be deemed to be duly elected and will represent the new State for the unexpired term.

Clause 7.—The amendment is of a consequential nature.

Clauses 8 and 9.—These clauses deal with representation of Mizoram in the House of the People. At present there is one seat in the House of the People for the Union territory of Mizoram. It is proposed to continue this representation for the new State also. The sitting Member from Mizoram in the House of the People will be deemed to have been duly elected and will represent the new State.

Clause 10.—This clause provides that the number of seats in the Legislative Assembly of the State of Mizoram to be filled by persons by direct election shall be 40.

Clauses 11 and 12.—These clauses provide for Delimitation of the Assembly Constituencies by the Election Commission according to the procedure generally followed by the Delimitation Commission.

Clauses 13 and 14 and the Schedules.—These seek to make the necessary consequential amendments in the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950, the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) (Union Territories) Order, 1951, the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950 and the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) (Union Territories) Order, 1951.

Clauses 15 to 26.—At present the jurisdiction of the common High Court for the States of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura, called the Gauhati High Court extends to the Union territory of Mizoram. Clause 15 provides for common High Court for the States of Assam, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Manipur, Tripura and Mizoram to be called the Gauhati High Court. The detailed provisions contained in other clauses follow broadly the relevant provisions of the previous Reorganisation Acts and deal inter alia with the powers, functions and the procedure to be followed by the new common High Court.

Clauses 27 to 30.—These clauses deal with authorisation of expenditure and distribution of revenues. As it will take some time for the new State to prepare its budget and have it approved by the State Legislature, provision has been made in clause 27 that before the new State comes into existence, the President may, by order, authorise expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State for a period of six months. Thereafter the power will be exercised by the Governor. Provision has been made in clause 29 to enable the President to determine the allowances and privileges of the Governor of the new State. Clause 30 empowers the President to determine by order the grants-in-aid to the new State and its share of Central Taxes.

Clause 31.—This clause relates to transfer of property, assets, rights, liabilities and obligations to the new State. This clause provides that all properties and other assets in the Union territory of Mizoram which are at present held for purposes of governance of the Union territory and which are not properties or assets held for Union purposes shall vest in the new State along with the cash balances in the treasuries in the Union territory. Under this clause, all rights, liabilities and other obligations arising out of, or in connection with the governance of the Union territory excluding those relatable to the Union purposes become the rights, liabilities and obligations of the new State. However, institutions, undertakings or projects financed at present out of the Consolidated Fund of India and properties of the Central Government placed at the disposal of the Government of Mizoram will not be transferred to the new State [vide clause 31(4)]. It is not proposed to transfer any debt liability to the new State on account of the capital outlay made by the Central Government on the properties which become vested in the new State under the provisions of this clause.

Clauses 32 to 38.—Clause 32 provides for the officers of the Indian Administrative Service, Indian Police Service and the Indian Forest Service serving in the Union territory at present, being deemed to be on deputation on and from the appointed day to the Government of the State of Mizoram on the same terms and conditions of service as are applicable under the relevant Cadre Rules, the period of such deputation not extending beyond a period of three years from the appointed day in any case. Clauses 34 and 35 are on the same lines as corresponding provisions of the previous Reorganisation Acts. Clause 36 provides for the establishment of one or more Advisory Committees by the Central Government for the purpose of assisting it in regard to the discharge of its functions relating to provisions as to services and for ensuring a fair and equitable treatment to all persons so affected. Clause 37 prohibits representation against orders passed under the provisions of Part VI after a certain period. Clause 38 empowers the Central Government to give directions to the new State for the purpose of giving effect to the various provisions relating to services.

Clauses 39 to 42.—These clauses make consequential amendments in article 210 (relating to language to be used in the Legislature), article 239A (creation of local Legislature or Council of Ministers or both for certain Union territories), article 240 (power of President to make regulations for certain Union territories), article 244 (administration of Scheduled Areas and Tribal Areas), the Fifth Schedule and the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution. The consequential amendments also include amendments in the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act, 1958, the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963 and the North-Eastern Council Act, 1971.

Clauses 43 to 48.—These clauses make the usual provisions regarding the continuance of existing laws and adaptations of those laws and their interpretation by courts, etc. These provisions follow the corresponding provisions of the previous Reorganisation Act.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 11 of the Bill seeks to empower the Election Commission of India to delimit the assembly constituencies of the new State of Mizoram. For this purpose, non-recurring expenditure of about Rs. 50,000 will have to be incurred. This expenditure will be met from the Consolidated Fund of India.

2. According to the Budget estimates of Mizoram for the current year, the domestic revenue receipts of the Union territory are Rs. 5.65 crores while the non-plan expenditure on revenue account is Rs. 91.73 crores. The gap is met by the grant-in-aid given by the Central Government. As a State, Mizoram will be entitled to a share in the Central taxes which will be determined in pursuance of clause 30 of the Bill. This would augment the State's revenue to the extent of Rs. 5.17 crores on the basis of current year's estimates, leaving a non-plan revenue deficit of Rs. 80.91 crores. In the past, the Finance Commission had taken note of such deficits and recommended suitable grants-in-aid under article 275(1) of the Constitution. It is, therefore, proposed to provide for such quantum of grant-in-aid to the new State as may be considered necessary until the recommendations of the next Finance Commission become available, by suitably amending the provisions of the Constitution (Distribution of Revenues) Order, 1985 in exercise of the powers sought to be taken in clause 30 of the Bill.

3. Clause 36 of the Bill seeks to empower the Central Government to establish one or more Advisory Committees for the purpose of assisting it in regard to the discharge of its functions in relation to allocation of members of the services and the ensuring of fair and equitable treatment to all persons affected. Some expenditure not exceeding Rs. 5,000 may have to be incurred out of the Consolidated Fund of India on account of travelling allowance of members of the Committee.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 29 of the Bill enables the President to determine by order the allowances and privileges of the Governor of the new State.

2. Clause 30 of the Bill empowers the President to determine by order the grant-in-aid to the new State and its share of Central taxes and amend for that purpose the relevant provisions of the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act, 1957, the Union Duties of Excise (Distribution) Act, 1979, the Estate Duty (Distribution) Act, 1962, and the Constitution (Distribution of Revenue) Order, 1985.

3. Clause 43 provides for the adaptation of existing laws to facilitate their application to the new State. The power to adapt is being conferred on the Central Government in the case of laws relating to matters enumerated in the Union List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution and on the Government of the new State in the case of all other laws.

4. Clause 48 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules to give effect to the provisions of the Bill when enacted. The rules, if any, will be confined to matters of procedure and other matters of minor detail relating to the enforcement of the various provisions included in the Bill.

5. The various provisions aforementioned are modelled on identical or analogous provisions in the State Reorganisation Acts passed by Parliament earlier. Besides, they are mainly of a consequential nature or pertain to matters of detail and procedure. As such the proposed delegation of legislative powers is of a normal character.

Secretary-General.
